

Week 8: Walking with the Family of God Part 2

Jonathan Srock / General

Living in the Last Days Life Group

Description: The New Testament gives plenty of conditions on how we live together as Christians. What are some of the ways the Bible calls us to operate with other Christians? How do we deal with sin in the Church? What are some other expectations on us?

Opening Prayer (5 minutes)

Teaching (45 minutes)

The New Testament letters are a specific kind of genre in the First Century world. An epistle is a letter, usually short, that has certain things in it like encouragement for the recipients, teaching and exhortation, prayers and thanksgiving, and warnings. Epistles can be written to a group or a person, and you see examples of both in the New Testament.

The book of Revelation is unlike any other book of the New Testament. It is specifically the genre of Prophetic Apocalyptic literature. We know it is a book of prophecy because it says it is (Revelation 1:3).

As prophecy, it functions much like Old Testament prophecy. There are points of prediction telling the future (Revelation 1:1). But the vast majority of Revelation is about being allied to Jesus no matter what happens in the world.

Apocalyptic literature is a special kind of prophecy. There are some prophetic books in the Old Testament that are also apocalyptic literature, like parts of Ezekiel and

The name of the book, Revelation, in the Greek language is the word for apocalypse. It uses certain images and symbolic language to point out “hidden” truths that are “revealed” in the imagery of the book.

1. Demonstrate Christian character

One reason we are still here in the world is to develop in Christian character. The Holy Spirit is leading us into conformity to the image of Christ (Romans 8:28-30).

2. Deal with sin

We are still susceptible to sin even though we are dead to it. The New Testament letters have a lot to say about sin and rolling over it.

They give us the proper perspective about sin and how we must react to temptation. It should be in the inception in our lives, not the rule.

We spend so much time fighting the spiritual battles against the flesh and spend in our lives when we should be focusing on living victoriously for Christ and making a mark for Him on this world.

- a. Dead to sin (Romans 12:12-14; Ephesians 2:1-3) slaves to righteousness (Romans 12:15-23)

- p. Wake up and strengthen what remains (Revelation 3:2)

3. Godliness/Holiness

Another major focus of the New Testament letters is developing and godliness and holiness. These words are virtually synonyms.

Once again, the Holy Spirit is named “Holy” for the reason that He designed the program to make us holy and godly.

You will find below categories of character once again, but specifically the character that drives our actions and behavior.

- a. Living sacrifices to God (Romans 12:1-2) Serve the Lord with zeal and fervency (Romans 12:11)

4. Live in the Spirit

It is said that many Christians do not know the relationship or power of the Holy Spirit and their daily lives. He lives in us, and we can develop a great relationship with Him.

The Holy Spirit is responsible for a vibrant and active relationship with Jesus as we live for Him in a wicked world. We need to develop that relationship with the Spirit and allow Him to minister through us and lead us until our time on this earth is finished.

- a. Life through the Spirit (Romans 8:9-11)
- b. Use the gifts of the Spirit (Romans 12:6-8; 1 Corinthians 12:8-11)
- c. Walk by the Spirit (Galatians 5:16), keep in step with the Spirit (Galatians 5:25)

- j. Hear what the Spirit says to the churches (Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22)

5. Dealing with outsiders

Another reason we're still here of the world is to be lights and witnesses of Jesus to the world. You will also see this topic addressed below.

You will be surprised to find out how the New Testament letters talk about our relationship with unbelievers. There are some commands you would expect, but much of what the New Testament teaches us about outsiders is how to show them love and interact with them in ways that highlight Jesus.

- a. Take care of your enemy (Romans 12:20)
- b. Bless your persecutors (Romans 12:14) , Do not fear those who persecute you (1 Peter 3:14)

- d. Do not be yoked with unbelievers (2 Corinthians 6:14)
- e. Don't let unbelievers deceive you with empty talk and don't be partners with them (Ephesians 5:6), expose fruitless the darkness (Ephesians 5:11)
- f. Don't let anyone disqualify you by these things (Colossians 2:10)

6. Think like a Christian

Is my contention that the Christian mind is the most underdeveloped part of our being a new creature in Christ. The New Testament letters have much to say about the development of the Christian mind and mindset.

You may be surprised to find out how much we are commanded in the New Testament to develop a Christian mindset. The way we think leads to the way we feel and act.

These are just the commands about a Christian mindset. It does not merely cover the amount of “mental words” you will find in the Bible, and especially the New Testament.

- a. Renewing of your mind and (Romans 12:2)

- k. Do not be surprised that the world hates you (1 John 3:13)

7. Stand against false teachers and false teaching

The New Testament letters are full of commands about how to deal with false teachers, teaching, and false prophets. Perhaps surprising to us, the apostles dealt with false teachers more than they should have.

You will find false teachers and false teaching in the Church. That is exactly where the devil would like to the real Christianity and Christians.

One thing you'll notice is that the apostles were not timid or dancing around the bush when it came to false teachers. They dealt with them decisively and with finality.

We must realize that false teachers are rarely misguided and wanting to be corrected. It is more likely that they are attempting to create points of disunity and dissolution. We must stand firm against them and not allow them anywhere.

- a. Purge the evil person from among you (1 Corinthians 5:13)
- b. Do not become captive to empty philosophies (Colossians 2:8)
- c. Test everything (1 Thessalonians 5:21), Don't believe every spirit but test the spirits (1 John 4:1)

- k. Preach the Word, be ready in season and out of season, reprove, rebuke, and exhort with complete patience and teaching (2 Timothy 4:2), Long for the pure spiritual milk of biblical teaching (1 Peter 2:2), Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you (1 John 2:24), Remember what the apostles said about people who scoff at the teaching of the coming of our Lord (Jude 17)

o. Save others by snatching them out of the fire (Jude 23), Have mercy on those who doubt (Jude 22), Show mercy with fear (Jude 23)

8. Christianity in home life

Some of the letters of the New Testament specifically address a Christian home and what it should be like. Paul and Peter especially address what home life should be like.

It should not be like the world around us. As such, it addresses husbands and wives, children and fathers, and at the time of the New Testament writings, masters and slaves.

You will find a remarkable similarity between letters on these issues and the people they address. When you see how the Greek and Roman households were run, you will see a marked difference in Christian homes.

Jesus is Lord in the Christian home, and as such, He shows us how to interact on family levels differently than the world.

You may not like what the Bible has to say about wives, husbands, children, and fathers, or the slave/master relationship, but the Bible challenges us in each of these roles to put Jesus first. It is out of respect for Him that we obey these commands and teachings about Christian home life.

- a. Husbands love your wives, wives submit to and respect your husbands, 5:22-32), Wives submit to husbands, husbands love wives (Colossians 3:18-19), Wives be subject to your own husbands (1 Peter 3:1), Husbands live with your lives in an understandable way (1 Peter 3:7)

- c. Fathers do not provoke children, bring children up in the ways of the Lord (Ephesians 6:2-4), Fathers do not provoke children (Colossians 3:21)

9. Living in Christian community

The Church was put into place by Jesus. It is not perfect, and I can be infiltrated by false teachers and prophets as you saw above. But it is also the best place to help you grow as a Christian.

Near and dear to the people of God is a place of fellowship and like mindedness they cannot get from the world. The Church is Jesus's people for you to interact with and grow together with.

I like to say that the Church should be a place of light, warmth, and grace. It's like coming out of the cold, dark world and into a warm place of friendship and mission together. "Together" is a keyword for us. We should be working together and with one another.

The Church has its faults and is by no means perfect, but you can find friendship and family here that you may not be able to find in the world. There are different perspectives and goals between God's people and the world.

- a. Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep (Romans 12:15), Rejoice (2 Corinthians 13:11), Rejoice in the Lord (Philippians 3:1; 4:4), Rejoice always (1 Thessalonians 5:16)
